5.4 Expenditure on data communications as a percentage of total budget

The graph shows what percentage of their budgets NRENs spend on transmission (data communications). As is clear from the graph, NREN expenditure on transmission is high, for most NRENs ranging between 35% and more than 90%. France (not included in this table) has indicated it spends 91% of its budget on transmission, equipment and software costs.