TF-MEDIA

Task Force on Media

Management and Distribution (2010-2012)

Brings together European NRENs, universities, librarians and other academic content owners to explore the architectures, technologies and workflow processes necessary for various rich media content production management and distribution for the research and education community. Collaborate on a range of activities. The TF-Media Terms of Reference were renewed in 2012 in order to collect and share ideas, knowledge and experiences on how to support media applied to pedagogical (e-learning) as well as to research/scientific purposes.

---

How long ago did you start with lecture/ recording media management?

- 9% - Less than one year
- 8% - 1 year
- 16% - 2 years
- 21% - 3-5 years
- 46% - Longer than 5 years

---

Intention to share developments and software codes

- 49% - Open source code
- 41% - Code re-use is possible
- 10% - Closed source code

---

In what format is content made available?

- 93% - live stream
- 66% - archived
- 59% - both ways

---

Supported platforms and devices

- 11% - Android devices
- 13% - Apple IOS devices
- 20% - Linux
- 25% - MacOS
- 30% - Windows

---

To whom is the content available?

- 14% open access*
- 10% restricted to country
- 21% institution
- 17% department
- 38% specific user group

---

()The open education initiatives, such as OpenCourseWave (http://www.ocwconsortium.org/), can play a significant role in making more and more educational content publicly available. It is recommended to NRENs to join in the national open education initiatives!